D.S.1.

Condemned prisoner No. 4564, A.J. Peiris, confined in the C.J., Cannanore, was tried by the Sessions Judge, South Kanara, as accused 2, in S.C. No. 34/52 on his file, on charges of abetment by criminal conspiracy, of murder, the murder having been committed in pursuance thereof (section 120-B read with sections 302 and 109, I.P.C.) and abetment by criminal conspiracy, of the offence of causing the disappearance of evidence of murder (section 120-B read with sections 201 and 109, I.P.C.). The Sessions Judge found him guilty as charged and convicted and sentenced him to death under section 120-B read with sections 302 and 109, I.P.C. In view of the above conviction, the Sessions Judge considered it unnecessary to record any conviction for the other offence, viz., causing the disappearance of the evidence of murder. The prisoner applied to the Supreme Court for special leave to appeal against the judgment and order of the High Court, in Crl. Miscellaneous Petition No. 330/53 on the file of the Supreme Court of India and special leave to appeal has been granted to the prisoner by that Court. The Supreme Court has also ordered that the Regr., High Ct., Madras, do have printed in the High Court and transmitted to the Supreme Court, at the expense of the Govt. of the State of Madras, 15 copies of the record proper, to be laid before that Court.
